Join us for the Fourth Annual Passport to Literacy Conference, where reading and writing take center stage! We are honored to welcome internationally recognized literacy expert Dr. Steve Graham as our keynote speaker. Drawing on more than four decades of groundbreaking research, Dr. Graham will explore the powerful connection between reading and writing and how strengthening one can strengthen the other. He will also lead a breakout session offering a deeper look at practical instructional strategies informed by recent studies connecting reading and writing.

The learning continues through interactive workshops led by Riverside County educators. These sessions will bring evidence-based practices and the science of learning and development to life through practical insights, local implementation stories, and resources educators can apply within their own settings.

Workshop topics include:

- Literacy leadership and coaching.
- First best instruction.
- Language and literacy across content areas.
- Early literacy.
- Family and community engagement.
- Secondary literacy.

Come ready to learn, connect, and leave inspired with evidence-based ideas to help every student become a confident reader and writer!

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Educators and leaders dedicated to advancing literacy and language instruction that supports and empowers all students to become confident readers and writers.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

"Write your way to better reading and read your way to better writing."
- Dr. Steve Graham
