I think for the first time in a long time, we have everyone who's on the commission present and Mr. Curry and Rose [Rivera] and Dana [Donald]. I do want to say something that just came to me. We owe Dana Donald a lot. She does such a good job reviewing these cases and investigating them. She plans all the outreach activities as well as attends and participates in lots of events. She prepares literature and answers questions. She's a very girl and I want to thank you." Commissioners Irving and Riley thanked Dana Donald as well "Great Job. Well done."

Privilege of the Floor

Councilman Curry stated, "Even though the cases that came before you today were found to have no probable cause, I still think it is good to have the process where people can come forward with their versions of what might have happened. I think both parties learned from the situation. So, it's good you're in place. Thank you." Ms. Donald thanked Councilman Curry for his support.
