10/16 On the 2000 block of W. Grand River Ave. for a trespass warning call. The caller stated there had been an unwanted guest wandering the parking lot of the establishment they work at. This individual was bothering customers and refusing to leave the property. The individual also appeared to be having a mental health crisis. The subject has been trespassed from the establishment for life. Report is on file.

10/17 1700 block of Newman Road for a retail fraud complaint. The caller, who is the loss-prevention officer at the establishment, stated that an individual that had been caught stealing at a different store location had just left this establishment with merchandise they did not pay for. It was later found the subject has seven active warrants out for their arrest and is currently on probation. The approximate cost of items stolen is $994. The case has been forwarded to the Ingham County Prosecutor's Office seeking 1st-degree retail fraud charges.

10/19 1600 block of Haslett Road for a larceny report. The call came from a construction manager who had stated that their security camera captured activity during the weekend when no one was supposed to be on the construction site. Once they arrived on scene, they noticed that wiring that was being used for a ventilation system had been stolen. The subject has not been identified. Report is on file.

10/20 6100 block of Porter Avenue for a larceny from automobile report. The caller stated they noticed their vehicle had been rifled through after leaving it parked in the driveway overnight. The caller admitted they did not lock their vehicle. The approximate total of the items stolen out of the vehicle was $225. No subject has been identified. Report is on file.

10/21 4600 block of Okemos Road for a malicious destruction of property complaint. The caller, who designs construction buildings for a living, had given a client a quote for a job. Once the design was complete and presented to the client along with the price, the client became enraged and said they would not be paying that much for the design. The caller then left the residence, and the enraged individual followed them outside and began hitting the client's car with a broomstick. The client broke the caller's windshield and driver's side mirror before they were able to calm down. The caller was then able to get into the vehicle and leave. The caller did not want to press charges as it was someone they knew for many years. Report is on file.

10/22 5800 block of Okemos Road for a fraud complaint. The caller stated that an individual with a foreign accent had called them on the phone claiming to be a representative with Apple. They said the victim needed to purchase various gift cards and send the serial numbers on the back of the gift cards to an "iCloud" email account. The subject said this needed to happen to avoid a $12,000.00 charge on the victim's account. Once the subject asked the victim to purchase more gift cards, the victim began to feel as if they were being scammed. The victim ceased all communication with the subject, alerted their bank and contacted MTPD to report the crime. No subject has been identified. Report is on file.

10/23 1900 block of W. Grand River for a retail fraud. The caller, who was a security guard at the establishment, said they witnessed an individual walk into a dressing room and walk out wearing the new clothes over their other clothes and pass all points of sale without purchasing the items. The subject then went to get on the CATA bus where they were apprehended by police. The subject then returned the clothing items back to the store. The subject has been trespassed from the establishment for life. Police procedures completed.

10/25 1700 block of Newman Road for a retail fraud. The loss prevention employee of the establishment witnessed an individual enter the store, head to the appliance section, pick up two appliances and head towards the exit. The subject then left the building passing all points of sale. The vehicle the subject was driving has been identified. Approximate value of items stolen is $714.00. Awaiting results for possible lead on suspect identification.

10/27 2000 block of W. Grand River for a trespassing complaint. The caller, who identified as the manager of the establishment, stated that an individual had been coming into the building and sitting in the corner of the lobby and falling asleep for multiple hours every day of the week. Subject was then issued a criminal trespass warning for one month.

10/28 2100 block of Woodfield Road for a fraud report. The victim stated they received a phone call from an individual claiming to be a Sergeant with Ingham County. The subject told the victim there was a warrant out for their arrest and to send them $953.00 to avoid resolve the issue. The victim sent two payments through the Zelle app and then realized they had been scammed. The victim would like to pursue charges if a subject is identified. Report is on file.

10/29 3800 block of Sun Rapids Drive for a fraud complaint. The victim stated they received a phone call from an individual claiming to be a Captain with Ingham County Sheriff's Office. The subject said the victim had an active warrant out for their arrest and ordered them to deposit $1380.00 into a Bitcoin ATM and the issue would be resolved. Once the victim sent the money, they realized they had been scammed. The victim would like to pursue charges if a subject is identified. Report is on file.

10/30 300 block of Oakhill Drive for a credit card fraud complaint. The victim stated they were walking through East Lansing the night prior looking for a bar to enjoy a meal in. Once they arrived at an establishment, they realized their debit card and Michigan driver's license was no longer in their pocket where they had previously put them. Once the victim realized these items were missing, they contacted their bank to freeze their account. The next morning, the victim received notifications that someone had been trying to use their debit card at McDonalds. The transactions were declined. The victim stated they did not want to press charges if a subject was found. They only wanted their driver's license back. Report is on file.

10/31 1900 block of W. Grand River for a retail fraud. The caller stated they saw two individuals stuff Halloween masks into their bags and pass all points of sale without purchasing the items. The subjects were caught across the street, and the merchandise was returned to the store. Both subjects have been trespassed from the establishment for one year.
