Meridian Township Extends Summer Concert Series into October
Three Additional Weeks of Live Music at Marketplace on the Green

MERIDIAN TOWNSHIP, Mich., – Due to weather-related cancellations in June and July, Meridian Township is extending the Summer Concert Series into October to accommodate previously canceled performances.

Concerts will begin at 6:30 pm at the Marketplace on the Green Pavilion (1995 Central Park Drive, Okemos).

The Wednesday Farmers' Market will also continue from 3:00 pm to 7:00 pm every Wednesday through the end of October, providing visitors an opportunity to shop local vendors before the concerts begin.

2026 Summer Concert Series October Lineup:

- October 7 – Atomic Annie (70s classic rock to 80s MTV hits, 90s-00s alternative anthems)
- October 14 – Stone Street Revival (Great songs you don't often hear and 70's hits)
- October 21 – BIG L & Code Blu (Soul/Funk/R&B/Rock Band based in South Central Michigan)

For more details about the Summer Concert Series, visit meridian.mi.us/SCS. For questions, contact the Meridian Township Parks and Recreation Department at 517.853.4600 or email parks@meridian.mi.us.
