

WOMEN & WATER

WOVEN PORTRAITS FROM AROUND THE WORLD

FREE
ART EXHIBIT

AUGUST 27 – OCTOBER 15, 2026

An exhibit celebrating and honoring water by portraying 29 women from over 20 countries who work with, protect, and advocate for water.

Scientists • Water-Walkers • Teachers
Farmers • Activists • Healers

THURS AUG 27 | 5:30 PM

Opening reception with Mary Burns and presentation by Amanda Weinert, Anishinaabe consultant, educator and artist.

THURS AUG 27 | 10 AM

Crooked Tree Arts Center, Coffee @ 10
Portraits of Change:
Inspiring Activism
through Art.

SAT SEPT 5 | 12 -9 PM Water is Life Festival

200 Wachtel Ave, Little Traverse Bay shoreline

Visit the Library booth to discover library resources, enjoy a hands-on activity, and learn about programs for all ages.

TUES SEPT 8 | 5:30 PM

Page Turners Book Discussion: Properties of Thirst by Marianne Wiggins. New readers welcome. Free copy, while supplies last!

SEPT 12 - OCT 17

Crooked Tree Arts Center Atrium Gallery
Women + Water: Life Bearers, Teachers, Storytellers, an exhibit.

PARTNERS MAKING IT POSSIBLE:

WOMEN & WATER

WOVEN PORTRAITS FROM AROUND THE WORLD

THURS SEPT 17

10 AM – 4 PM

Lake Charlevoix
Weavers and Spinners
weaving and loom
demonstrations.

WED SEPT 23 | 7 PM

Carnegie Building,
Petoskey Film Series
presents Bad River, a film by Mary Mazzio
chronicling Lake Superior.

WED SEPT 30 | 4 PM

Water Marbling Art with teen librarian, Nisa on the Library Labyrinth.

MON OCT 5 | 4 PM

Sturgeon in the Classroom: History of the ugliest fish in the lake – for kids of all ages!
Offered by Ann Douglas from Sturgeon for Tomorrow.

TUES OCT 6 | 5:30 PM

Rivercare: Restoring
rivers and revitalizing habitats in northern Michigan. Offered by Conservation Resource Alliance.

THURS OCT 15 | 3:30 PM

Small Loom Workshop
with the artist, Mary Burns. Registration required.

Events hosted at the Petoskey District Library
500 E Mitchell St,
unless otherwise noted.

petoskeylibrary.org
231.758.3100

