Pippi Longstocking A Remarkable Girl

Pippi Longstocking: A Remarkable Girl is a collaborative, multidisciplinary art exhibition curated by Renee Rojanaroj, Riverside County Office of Education Arts Administrator, and Karen Riley, Executive Director of S.C.R.A.P. Gallery.

This exhibition invites students, teachers, parents, and professional artists to create their own artistic interpretations of Pippi Longstocking and/or other beloved characters from the book, inspired by creativity, imagination, and storytelling.

Selected artwork will be professionally framed and featured in a unique traveling art exhibition throughout Riverside County.

Parameters:

- Size – 5"W x 7"H, vertical orientation.
- Work must be on paper.
- Acceptable mediums: crayon, colored pencil, pastel, watercolor, acrylic, mixed media, or collage.
- Colorful, imaginative work and the use of recycled materials are highly encouraged.
- ALL submissions must be labeled according to the directions (www.rcoe.us/Pippi-Longstocking) on the RCOE ARTS website. You can download a page of labels (www.rcoe.us/Pippi-Labels) for ease of use.
- Student first name, student last name, district, school, grade, and teacher must all be clearly and legibly printed for the submission to be considered.

If you would like to create Pippi collages with your students, you can request our curated STEAM kit, A Remarkable Girl, for your class. Contact Karen Riley at karen@scrapgallery.org.

If you would like to request a copy of the book Pippi Longstocking (we have 100 available on a first-come, first-served basis), contact Renee Rojanaroj at rrojanaroj@rcoe.us.

Under the Lemonade Tree...

Meet the charming, red-haired, pigtailed, fiercely independent girl known as Pippi Longstocking.

First published in 1945 by renowned Swedish author Astrid Lindgren, Pippi Longstocking has become a beloved classic around the world, celebrating children's imagination, independence, unique voices, and perspectives.
