Transforming Outcomes for English Learners Through

— INNOVATION AND ACTION —

Wednesday, December 2, 2026

The English Learner Symposium is committed to the academic, linguistic, and social-emotional success of English learners. Grounded in the California English Learner Roadmap, this event highlights practical strategies, research-based practices, and collaborative innovation to advance access and opportunity for multilingual learners.

Explore how to implement the Roadmap's vision to foster inclusive, affirming, and academically rigorous environments, where language development is integrated across content areas and multilingualism is embraced as a powerful asset.
