Skagit County, WA

Respiratory Illness Report

CDC Week 44: November 1- November 7, 2026

INFLUENZA

Increased in the last 4 weeks

2 outbreak in the last 3 months

0 deaths in the last 3 months

RSV

About the same in the last 4 weeks

0 outbreaks in the last 3 months

0 deaths in the last 3 months

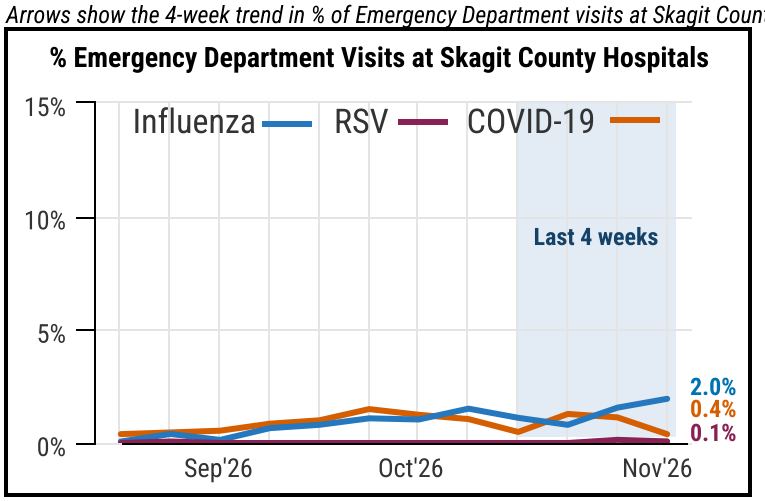

COVID-19

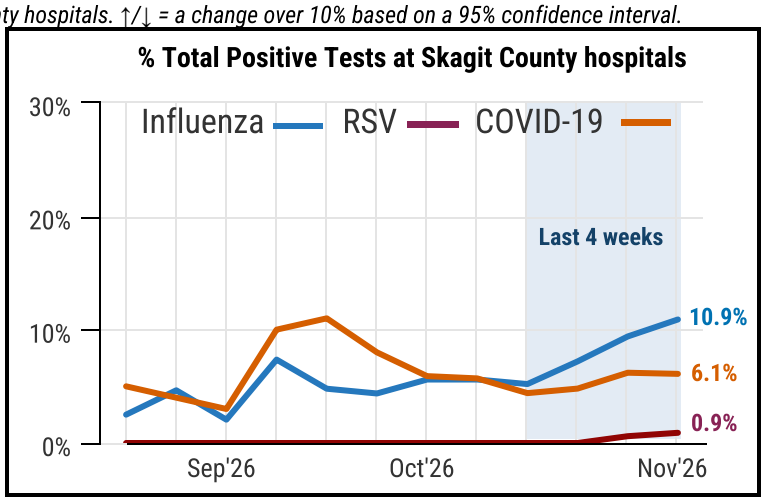

About the same in the last 4 weeks

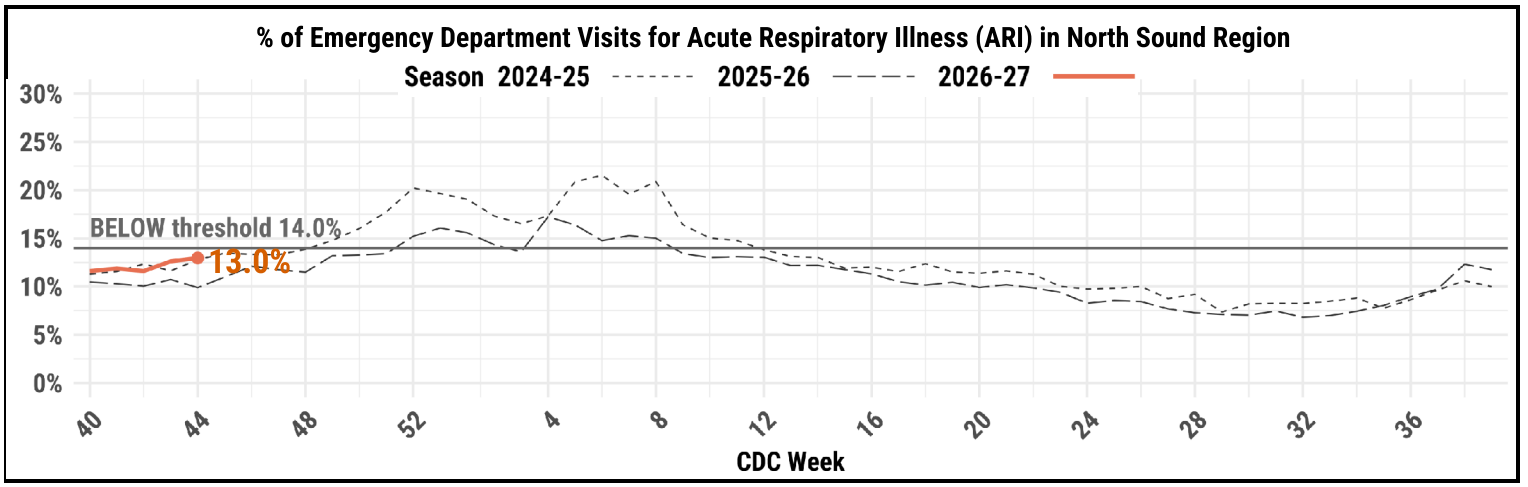

5 outbreaks in the last 3 months

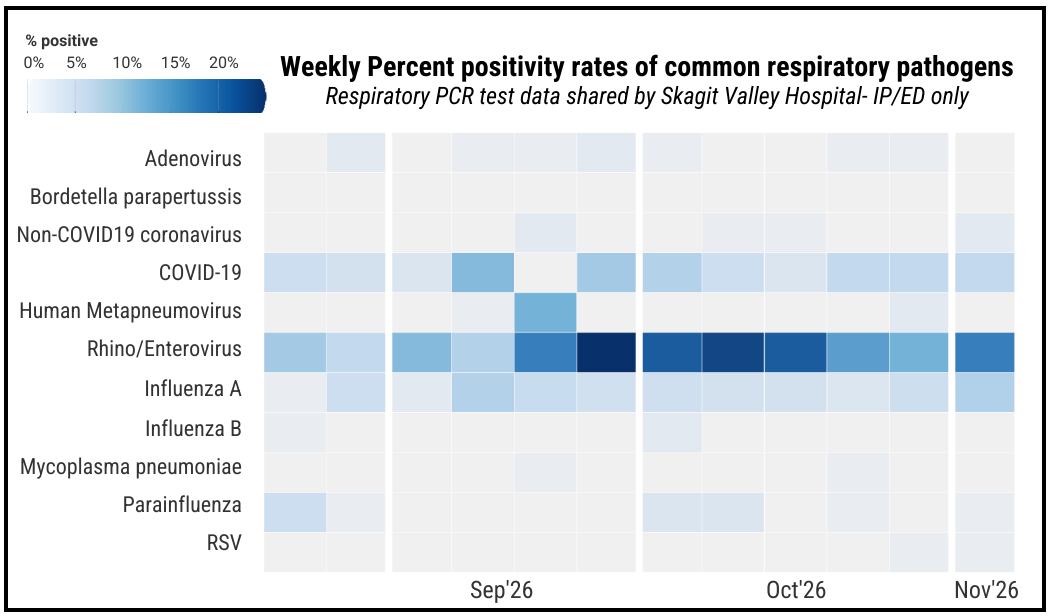

0 deaths in the last 3 months

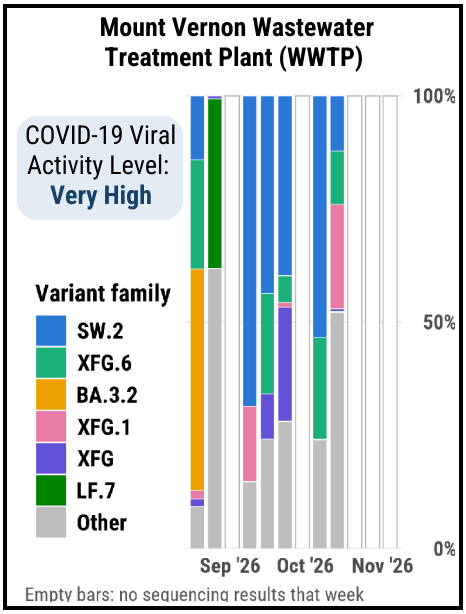

Arrows show the 4-week trend in % of Emergency Department visits at Skagit County hospitals. ↑/↓ = a change over 10% based on a 95% confidence interval.

NOTE: The respiratory illness season typically runs from October 1 through May 31. SOURCE: Data are from ESSENCE syndromic surveillance system, WAWBE Waste Water Surveillance Program, and Skagit County hospital partners. Questions? Contact Skagit County Public Health: 360-416-1500 or communicabledisease@skagitcountywa.gov